

Sentenced - No One There

Tom: D
Intro: C Em7 D A C Em7 D

C Em The axe, the bottle, and the rope
C G D The feeling there really is no more hope
C G D The thought of the great unknown
A And facing it alone
C Em The dark, the silent, and the cold
C G D The feeling I have come to the end of my road
C G D Yes these are the things I spend
A My remaining moments with

C Em7 When the wind blows through my heart
D A Shivers me one last time
Bm C Em7 As I now reach out in the dark
D No one there
(C Em7 D)

C Em The desperation and the snow
C G D The feeling of finally coming back home
C G D The melancholy and the hole
A In the soil so hard and cold

C Em7 When the wind blows through my heart
D A Shivers me one last time

Bm C Em7 As I now reach out in the dark
D No one there
C Em7 Why did it have to be so hard
D A For us to live our lives
Bm C Em7 D Again I reach out in the dark in despair

[Solo] C Em7 D A C Em7 D
C Em7 D A C Em7 D

C Em Your love for me, my love for you
D A Things we somehow managed to lose
C Em D Now there's only the ruthless wind
D D (To blow right through)
C Em7 If freezes my heart, my desperate heart
D A If freezes my heart, my desperate heart
C Em7 If freezes my heart, my desperate heart
D D D (To think we both will die alone)

C Em7 When the wind blows through my heart
D A Shivers me one last time
Bm C Em7 As I now reach out in the dark
D No one there
C Em7 Why did it have to be so hard
D A For us to live our lives
Bm C Em7 D Again I reach out in the dark in despair

Acordes

