

Serj Tankian - Gate 21

Tom: G

The love that you bring
 You bring me alone
 The pain that you give
 Gives me a home
 Do you wanna stay by my side
 Do you want me to turn and hide
 We are disappearing inside
 Seeing pictures of our goodbyes

 When we, we believe
 That our love will survive
 The pain that you bring
 It brings me all alone
 Do you love me, Do you hate me,
 Do you wanna believe me,
 Do you think that you don't need me
 Do you wanna deceive me

I can't take that, it's all over don't want to forget
 I can take the disappointment down, I want to repress your Goodbye...
 Goodbye...
 The design, we broke the mold
 The dreams when you see, that goodbyes aren't for long
 Please follow me
 To the borders of destiny
 I don't want to break from your side
 The falling ground screams... goodbye
 Please follow me
 To the borders of destiny
 I don't want to break from your side
 The falling ground screams... goodbye
 Goodbye...
 Goodbye...
 The design, we broke the mold
 The dreams when you see, that goodbyes aren't for long
