

Shaman - Reason

Tom: C
   (intro) Em Bm D A (2x) Em
Strange how summer blossoms blew away so late this year
             Bm
falling from above, soft as snow
       Α
all around you
The days, I'd like to bring back side by side with you Em
and peer through that old black window D
and see red-blue skies so near, but say the word and I'll be ready to make a sacrifice Αm
stay - don't turn around Em Bm D A
there's only one reason all my life I wished I was here looking for a chance to cry out
                 Bm
all the pain that turned me into stone and thoughts that haunt me day by day

the word is "now" I'm ready to make my sacrifice pray - imagine all the things that I never talk about stay - don't turn around you're the only one  $\mathsf{Bm}$ Α won't you save me, take me away there's no more reason to hide D Α try to make a stand it's not only tears in my eyes C Am somewhere I'm all alone... whithout you "flowers of light descend as the twilight strangles the sky may I, in this vast world ever find another soul to contamplate my silence, forever..." won't you save me, take me away I've felt so lost as I've tried hold me, help me stand don't mind the tears in my eyes someday we'll pass away is there a time to go by? take a breath and smile fortune is to be alive
