

Shane Harper - Hold You Up

tom:

Intro: D
 When it's coming apart, you had it all
 It wasn't enough, no, it's not enough
 They tell you it's not worth the price, so just let it go
 But you know you can't, you know you won't

[Primeira Parte]

It's not easy, no
 Finding the words to say
 When you're feeling lost
 You'll find your way

[Refrão]

The world is so broken
 And sometimes it leaves you cold
 And at times you can't feel the fire
 To guide you home
 And the demons will haunt you
 And try to steal what you know

But the angels, they brought you
 And they're gonna hold you up

They're gonna hold you up.. Intro

Oh, oh
 They're gonna hold you up
 Oh, oh
 They're gonna hold you up

Volta na segunda parte

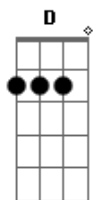

[Segunda Parte]

They see the fear in your eyes
 Heart sinks like a stone
 Cause when you're afraid
 It weighs on your soul

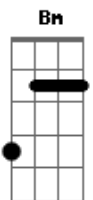

[Final]

When the timing is right
 Somehow you'll know
 When nobody stands
 Stand on your own
