

Shania Twain - Home ain't where his heart is (Anymore)

Tom: G

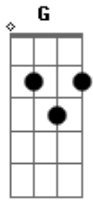

1. <sup>G</sup> ~ He <sup>C</sup> knew how to <sup>D</sup> reach me deep <sup>G</sup> inside,
<sup>C</sup> cause in each other's arms we were <sup>D</sup> home <sup>G</sup> sweet home.
