

Sharon Needles - Hollywoodn't

Tom: C

There's a reason why
 So many dreams have died
 On one steep hill
 For a lit up sign
 You can sell your soul
 For a two bit role
 Like jayne mansfield
 You can lose control

It's not that I do what I shouldn't
 I do what hollywoodn't, I do what hollywoodn't
 They say change, I should but I couldn't
 I do what hollywoodn't, I do what hollywoodn't

You can lose your mind
 On the holland drive
 Just to highlight your one life
 Glossy eight by ten
 A town of tanning beds
 Oh, here we go again

Roller coaster ride
 Watch it slowly rise
 It falls so fast, is it worth the climb?

After racing down, it goes round and round
 For the lucky ones, it goes upside-down

It's not that I do what I shouldn't
 I do what hollywoodn't, I do what hollywoodn't
 They say change, I should but I couldn't
 I do what hollywoodn't, I do what hollywoodn't

You can lose your mind
 On the holland drive
 Just to highlight your one life
 Glossy eight by ten
 A town of tanning beds
 Oh, here we go again

It's not that I do what I shouldn't
 I do what hollywoodn't, I do what hollywoodn't
 They say change, I should but I couldn't
 I do what hollywoodn't, I do what hollywoodn't

You can lose your mind
 On the holland drive
 Just to highlight your one life
 Glossy eight by ten
 A town of tanning beds
