Honestly

It's been a while since I thought of you

In the end, we didn't talk much

I didn't know what you were goin' through

[Segunda Parte]

I'm sorry that I wasn't there

To hug your mama at the funeral

Brian said he broke down

But he promised it was beautiful

[Pré-Refrão]

When we were young

We didn't care

We shot for the stars

I'll see you up there

[Refrão]

You had a heart of go-oo-oo-ooold (yeah)

You had a heart of go-oo-oo-ooold

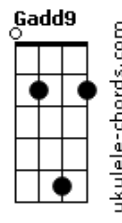

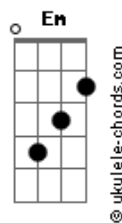

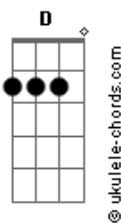

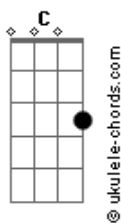

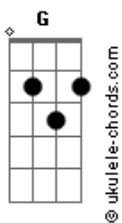

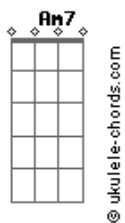

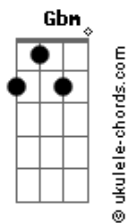

You left too soon, it was out of your control

Underneath your skin and bone

You had a heart of ___ gold
