

Shaya Zamora - Cigarette

```
Where did I go?
                                                                                            Ab
                           tom:
                                                                 Bbm
                                                               I'm flesh and blood, flesh and blood, flesh and blood
                                 [Intro] Gb Bbm Ab
[Primeira Parte]
                                                               And Bbm
                  Bbm
                                                               Don't want to leave you behind
My love and your heart is falling
                                                               So baby don't leave
                  Bbm
Our skin and our scars are on you
                                                               Don't leave, Don't leave
[Pré-Refrão]
                                                                    Bbm
                                                               Don't leave, don't leave, don't leave
    Gb
Your blood, my blood
    Gb
                                                               [Interlude] Gb Bbm Ab
Your blood, my blood
 Bbm
                                                               [Refrão]
          Ab
We bleed it
Your blood, my blood
                                                               Smoke me like a cigarette
  Gb
Your blood, my blood
                                                               Burn me till you're wheezing
 Bbm Ab
We bleed it
                                                               Tell me that you love me
[Refrão]
                                                               Even if you don?t mean it
                                                                   Gb
                                                               Your blood, my blood, we bleed it
Smoke me like a cigarette
                                                               Your bones, my bones, break even
Burn me till you're wheezing
                                                               Smoke me like a cigarette
                Bhm
Tell me that you love me
                                                               Burn me till you're wheezing
Even if you don?t mean it
                                                               Tell me that you love me
    Gb
Your blood, my blood, we bleed it
                                                               Even if you don?t mean it
    Bhm
Your bones, my bones, break even
                                                               [Terceira Parte]
              Gb
Smoke me like a cigarette
                                                               Used to think I loved you
Burn me till you're wheezing
Tell me that you love me
                                                               But now it's over
Even if you don?t mean it
                                                               Scars along my skin and on my body I don?t know you
[Segunda Parte]
                                                               Tell me that you love me
                                                               Do you still need me?
Used to think I loved you
                                                               Rising my blood rest so my heart's beating
But now it's over
                                                               [Pré-Refrão]
Scars along my skin and on my body I don?t know you
                                                               Gh
                                                               Lord, protect me
Tell me that you love me
                                                               I don't know
Do you still need me?
                                                               Gb
Rising my blood rest so my heart's beating
                                                               Where I went wrong
[Pré-Refrão]
                                                               Where did I go?
                                                               I'm flesh and blood, flesh and blood, flesh and blood
Lord, protect me
                                                               [Final] Gb Bbm
I don't know
                                                                      Gb Bbm Ab
                                                                      Gb Bbm Ab
Where I went wrong
                                                                      Gb Bbm Ab
```

Acordes

