

Sheryl Crow - Redemption Day

Tom: G

Verse 1:

Am
I've wept for those who suffer long
But how I weep for those who've gone
Into rooms of grief and questioned wrong

But keep on killing

Verse 2:

Am
It's in the soul to feel such things
But weak to watch without speaking
Oh what mercy sadness brings

If God be willing (Riff 1)

Chorus:

Am C
There is a train that's heading straight
C Am Am C
To heaven's gate, to heaven's gate
C
And on the way, child and man
C Am Am D
And woman wait, watch and wait
Am

For redemption day

Verse 3:

Am
The fire rages in the streets
And swallows everything it meets
It's just an image often seen
D

On television

Verse 4:

Am
Come leaders, come you men of great

Let us hear you pontificate
Your many virtues laid to waste

D Riff 1

And we aren't listening

Verse 5: (Different)

Am D C Am
What do you have for us today
Am D C Am
Throw us a bone but saw the plate
Am D C Am
Oh why we waited til so late
Am D
Was there no oil to excavate
No riches in trade for the fate
Of every person who died in hate

Throw us a bone, you men of great

Chorus:

Am C
There is a train that's heading straight
C Am Am C
To heaven's gate, to heaven's gate
C
And on the way, child and man
C Am C D
And woman wait, watch and wait
Am

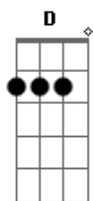

Riff 1

For redemption day

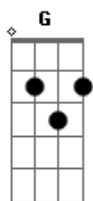

Verse 6:

Am C D Am
It's buried in the countryside
Am C D
Exploding in the shells of night
Am
It's everywhere a baby cries
D Am D Am
Freedom, freedom, freedom, freedom
Ends on Am
