Tom: G

Intro: G C Am7 G C Am7 G C Am D7 G

A a pril come she will,

When streams are ripe and swell with rain.

Ma ay she will stay,
Resting in my arms again.

Ju u une she'll change her tune,

In restless walks she'll prowl the night.

July y she will fly,
And give no warning to her flight.

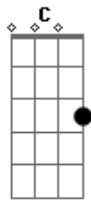

A august die she must,
The autumn winds blow chilly and cold.

September I'll reme ember,
A love once new has now grown old.
