

Simon & Garfunkel - The Dangling Conversation

Tom: Bb
Intro: .: Eb Gm F, Gm F Eb, Eb Bb Bb Bb7 Bb

Eb Gm F
It's a still life watercolor
Eb Gm F
Of a now late afternoon
Eb Gm F
As the sun shines through the curtain lace
Bb Bb Bb7 Bb
And shadows wash the room

Gm
And we sit and drink our coffee
Ab
Couched in our indifference
G
Like shells upon the shore
F
You can hear the ocean roar

Eb Gm F
In the dangling conversation
Bb F Eb
And the superficial sighs
Eb Bb Bb Bb7 Bb
The borders of our lives

Eb Gm F
And you read your Emily Dickinson
Eb Gm F
And I my Robert Frost
Eb Gm F
And we note our place with bookmarks
Bb Bb Bb7 Bb
That measure what we've lost

Gm
Like a poem poorly written

Ab
We are verses out of rhythm
G
Couplets out of rhyme
F
In syncopated time.

Eb Gm F
And the dangling conversation
Bb F Eb
And the superficial sighs
Eb Bb B B7 B
Are the borders of our lives

Eb Gm F
Yes we speak of things that matter
Eb Gm F
With words that must be said
Eb Gm F
Can analysis be worthwhile?
Bb Bb Bb7 Bb
Is the theatre really dead?

Gm
And how the room has softly faded
Ab
And I only kiss your shadow
G
I cannot feel your hand
F
You're a stranger now unto me
Eb Gm F
Lost in the dangling conversation
Bb F Eb
And the superficial sighs
Eb Bb Bb Bb7 Bb Bb
In the borders of our lives
