

Simple Plan - Anywhere Else But Here

Tom: Db

I'm staring at the clock
 I'm wondering why I'm still here
 And my head's about to pop I'm thinking that you best stay clear Oh How did I get stuck in this predicament I don't know I wanna throw this reputation out the window I'm getting tired of wondering why I'm still here

Refrão:

And I wish that I could snap my finger make myself disappear Snap my finger get myself outta here Snap my fingers snap my fingers oh oh

Refrão:

Cause I rather be anywhere else
 anywhere else anywhere else but here
 Cause I rather be anywhere else
 anywhere else anywhere else but here
 I could be catching the waves
 I could be seeing the world
 I could be riding with the top down kissing my girl
 Cause I rather be anywhere else
 anywhere else anywhere else but here

Interlúdio: Db

The sun is coming up don't wanna get out of bed Well here we go again I'm back to where I've began Oh you could take my checkbook credit cards and keep them

I'd give them up for a just little bit of freedom And my escape I'm planning it in my head

Ponte:

No more bus stops sitting in traffic Waking up in 6 in the morning
 ain't gonna happen
 No more office
 No more line ups
 You can just forget about it we want freedom
 We want freedom

 Cause I rather be anywhere else

Cause I rather be anywhere else

Cause I rather be anywhere else

I could be catching the waves

I could be sleeping in

I could be living it up

I could be sitting at home not giving a fuck

Cause I rather be anywhere else

Cause I rather be anywhere else

Anywhere else but here
