

Simple Plan - Astronaut

Can I please come down, cause I'm tired of drifting round and round
Can anybody hear me?
                                                                          G
                                                                      Am
                                                             Can I please come down?
Am I talking to myself?
                                                             Now I lie awake and scream in a zero gravity
My mind is running empty
In the search for someone else
                                                              And it's starting to weigh down on me.
Who doesn't look right through me.
                                                              Let's abort this mission now
                                                                     Am G
It's all just static in my head
                                                              Can I please come down?
Can anybody tell me why I'm lonely like a satellite?
                                                              So tonight I'm calling all astronauts
                                                                      Dm
Cause tonight I'm feeling like an astronaut
                                                              Calling lonely people that the world forgot
                                                              If you hear my voice come pick me up
Sending SOS from this tiny box
                                                                      Dm
And I lost all signal when I lifted up
                                                              Are you out there?
Now I'm stuck out here and the world forgot
                                                              Cause you're all I've got!
Am F Dm G
                                                              Cause tonight I'm feeling like an astronaut
Can I please come down, cause I'm tired of drifting round and
                                                              Sending SOS from this tiny box
Can I please come down?
                                                              And I lost all signal when I lifted up
                                                              Now I'm stuck out here and the world forgot
Is it something that I've done?
                                                              Cause tonight I'm feeling like an astronaut
I know that there are millions
                                                              Sending SOS from this tiny box
I can't be the only one who's so disconnected
                                                              To the lonely people that the world forgot
It's so different in my head
                                                                    Dm
                                                              Are you out there?
Can anybody tell me why I'm lonely like a satellite?
                                                              Cause you're all I've got!
                                                                    Am F
