

Simple Plan - Falling for you

```
Tom: Ab
                                                             Eb
                                                         Are you
 Ab
              Fb
                                                             Fm
This drowning sorrow is shaking me
B Ab
                                                         Going to
                                                                  Db
More than it ever has before
                                                         Be waiting up when I get home
        Eb
                                                             Eb
                                                                        Fm
                                                         We'll stay up all night
The road signs reading bitter end
                                                                          Db
Leave me suspect of a crime
                                                         Getting drunk and watching Sunsets on our porch
Base do solo: G#, D#, C, B
                                                                    Fm
                                                         Falling for you
       Fb
                                                                   Db
The city air chokes me today
                                                         Falling for you
                                                          Eb
       B Ab
More than it ever had before
                                                         I fell for you
 Eb C
                                                         (I'm falling)
I'm nervous to feel deserved
     B Ab
                                                         Falling for you
                                                         (I'm falling)
By these street signs anymore
Ab Eb
                                                                   Db
                                                         Falling for you
Are you
    Fm
                                                           Eb Ab
                                                         I fell for you
Going to
Be waiting up when I get home
                                                         passagem (uma batida em cada nota) : G#, G, Fm
 Eb Fm
We'll stay up all night
                                                                  Db
            Db
                                                         I'm dying to explain my heart
Getting drunk and watching Sunsets on our porch
                                                          Eb
                                                         to you now
                                                         Fm Db
                                                         I'm dying to explain my heart
Falling for you
         Db
                                                             Eb
Falling for you
                                                         to you now
Eb Ab
I fell for you
                                                                        Db
                                                                                        Ab
                                                         Fm
                                                         There's so much on my mind It's tearing me apart
(I'm falling)
                                                         Fm Db
                                                         There's so much on my mind It's tearing me apart
Falling for you
                                                         Base do solo : G#, D#, C, B
(I'm falling)
Falling for you
                                                                    Fm
                                                         Falling for you
       Ab
I fell for you
                                                            Db
                                                         Falling for you
Base do solo: G#, D#, C, B
                                                          Eb
                                                         I fell for you
                                                         (I'm falling)
These empty feelings question me
               Ab
                                                         Falling for you
           В
Of who i think i?ve become (I'm falling)
       Eb
Mind is ticking life away
                                                         Falling for you
    В
                                                          Eb
Asking if you are the one
                                                         I fell for you.
Acordes
     AЬ
                 Εb
                                                                 DЬ
```

