Oh lord down in the congress
                                                                           Bm7
                                                                 Yeah, I'm Talk Money
They're passing all kinds of bills
                                                                           Em7

                                                                 Yeah, Yeah, Yeah! Hey!
From up there on capitol hill, we've tried it
                                                                           Bm7
                                                                 Money, Money, Money!
         Bm7
Money's too tight to mention
                                                                           Em7
                                                                 Money's Too Tight
Oh money money money
                                                                 Money's Too Tight
Money's too tight to mention
                                                                           Em7
                                                                Money's Too Tight
          Em7
Cutbacks!
                                                                 Money's Too Tight
We're talking 'bout the dollar bill
                                                                           Fm7
                                                                 Money's Too Tight
And that old man who's over the hill
                                                                           Bm7
                                                                 Money's Too Tight
Now what are we all to do
                                                                Money's Too Tight
When money's got a hold on you
                                                                                                 Em7
                                                                           Bm7
                                                                 Money's Too Tight Too Mention
