

Sister Hazel - In The Moment

Tom: G

[intro] G G

Well if you're wondering where I've been all evening
 If you think that I've drifted off
 Without leavin' here I've finally found the answers

Don't worry, I'm not lost

CHORUS

I'm in the moment
 The one where nothing matters and everything's alright
 I'm seeing things so clearly now and you're the reason why
 I'm in the moment
 And I've alive I'm alive

I've been restless but you have been so patient
 Well I carelessly wasted my time
 But you left the door open and you kept the light on
 You waited for me to arrive

I'm in the moment
 The one where nothing matters and everything's alright
 I'm seeing things so clearly now and you're the reason why
 I'm in the moment
 And I've alive I'm alive

BRIDGE

Well I've finally come around, And now I see
 Every road has taken me, where I wanna be, I wanna be

I'm in the moment
 The one where nothing matters and everything's alright
 I'm seeing things so clearly now and you're the reason why
 I'm in the moment
 And I've alive I'm alive

I'm in the moment
 I'm alive [3x]
