

Skid Row - Born A Beggar

Tom: C
 Intro: - F A F A - G
 Verse - F A F A - G
 Bridge - C F A G
 chorus - F C F A - G

RIFF - Intro and Verse

F A F A - G
 As the day breaks through the doorway
 and i'm still chained to this house
 but you call me and I follow
 and act like i'm so proud
 still reading the sidewalk
 and it smells like morning news
 and I don't know why I still can't seem to pull away from you

F A
 Watch the window
 G C
 time means nothing
 F A
 watch the window
 G
 'til I see you coming

F C
 Born a beggar
 F
 will you ever
 A G F
 see me more than Pavlov's hungry dog
 C
 see no colours
 F
 live another
 A G F A
 day to feed on everything you are...
 F A - G
 and you are

When the day sleeps and the sunshine
 no longer burns my eyes
 and the sound of your footsteps
 is the only thing that lies

between me and the feeling that life fills these four walls
 that cage me completely
 just waiting on your call

F A
 Watch the window
 G C
 time means nothing
 F A
 watch the window
 G
 'til I see you coming

F C
 Born a beggar
 F
 will you ever
 A G F
 see me more than Pavlov's hungry dog
 C
 see no colours
 F
 live another
 A G F A
 day to feed on everything you are...
 F A - G
 and you are

I run for you
 a fall so hard
 my secrets are buried in the yard
 SOLO

F C
 Born a beggar
 F
 will you ever
 A G F
 see me more than Pavlov's hungry dog
 C
 see no colours
 F
 live another
 A G F A
 day to feed on everything you are...
 A G
 on everything you are
 A G
 on everything you are
 A G F
 on everything you are

Acordes

