

Skyhill - Hands On The Water

Tom: D

 Of all the things you might,
^C ^G
 Still want to satellite,
^A ^C ^G
 You took the star that you know won't shine as bright,
^A
 We're falling from the sky,
^C ^G
 And the look in your eye,
^A ^C ^G
 Is telling me that you won't be home tonight,
^A ^C ^G ^A
 No you won't be home tonight,

^F ^C
 Hands on the water, I find,
^G ^D
 That I could run away before you realize,
^F ^C
 And where the border, divides,
^G ^D
 I see the darkness that is haloed in your eyes,

^A
 Of all the things you hide,
^C ^G
 I hear in each reply,
^A ^C ^G
 You'll never stand up against the rising tide,
^A
 The blue and red collide,
^C ^G
 And the look in your eyes,

^A ^C ^G
 Is telling me that the dawn won't end the night,
^A ^C ^G
 No the dawn won't end the night,

^F ^C
 Oh lord,
^G ^D
 Do you hear us calling out,

^F ^C
 Hands on the water, I find,
^G ^D
 That it's impossible to make you change your mind,
^F ^C
 And where the border, divides,
^G ^D
 I see the darkness that is haloed in your eyes,

^F ^C
 Oh lord,
^G ^D
 Do you see us breaking down?
^F ^C
 Oh lord,
^G ^D
 Do you hear us calling out?

^F ^C
 Hands on the water, I find,
^G ^D
 That it's impossible to make you change your mind,
^F ^C
 And where the border divides,
^G ^D
 I see the darkness that is haloed in your eyes.
