tom:
               B (forma dos acordes no tom de A )
Capostraste na 2ª casa
                                                               She's a drink behind you
Intro: G C Am D C Cm Am D
                                                               Wander off to the stairs
[Primeira Parte]
                                                               Ten bucks for the last game
                                                               Suck smoke from the air
You won't leave the table
She won't leave your mind
                                                               Man, it cuts like a dull knife
                                                               When you're young and you're told
Gotta get out of Ohio
                                                               Makes sense when you're older
Feeling short on time
Eyeball your inheritance
                                                               Darling, let's get old
                                                               [Refrão]
Dead stare at the bar
Put back one more
                                                               Ohhh Ohh oh oh ohhh oh
Stumble under the stars
                                                               Ohhhh Ohh oh oh ohhhh oh
[Segunda Parte]
                                                               Ohhhh ohh oh oh ohhhh oh
We could fly to ireland
                                                               Ohhhh ohh oh oh ohhhh oh
You know I'm good for the ticket
                                                               ( Em G C )
( Em G C )
Try to smirk, but you're smiling
               Am
Know I'll stick with it
                                                               [Ponte]
Annie, I want you to marry me
                                                                     G
We'll wait a few years
                                                               I'd say you look tired
                                                               Em G
                                                               Sing, my secret choir
I don't mean to frighten you
I just wanna be clear
                                                               Soak my scrapes and sleep tight
[Refrão]
                                                               Sing, my brave acolyte
Ohhh Ohh oh oh ohhh oh
                                                               I'd say you look tired
                                                               Sing, my secret choir
Ohhhh Ohh oh oh ohhhh oh
                                                               Em G
Ohhhh ohh oh oh ohhhh oh
                                                               Soak my scrapes and sleep tight
Ohhhh ohh oh oh ohhhh oh
                                                               Sing, my brave acolyte
