C Em
Oh, our futures were written with crayons in coloring books

F C
It was misspelled and outside the lines and we loved how it looked

C Em
Like the crooked hem of your favorite childhood dress

F C
And the holes in my jeans from years of carelessness

F C Em
I know since we've grown, we ache for those memories

C F C Em
Honestly, nothing's even compared to you next to me, next to me

C Em
When the words came to you for the first time, you knew you were hooked

F C
And the pride that you felt at the last page of your first book

C Em
And the bravery I forced when I sang to an audience of three

C

Well, it took a million wrong notes just to find a single melody and key

F C
I know since we've grown we plea for clarity

Em F C
Honestly, nothing's ever made sense til you were next to me, next to me

Em C Em F
If time is money, then I'll spend it all for you

Em C Em F
I will buy you flowers with the minutes we outgrew

Em C Em F
I'll turn hours into gardens, planted just for us to take

Em C Em F
I'll be reckless with my days, building castles in your name

C
Since we've grown, we long for concrete things

Em F C
Honestly, nothing's felt so sure than when you were next to me, next to me

(C Em F C C)

C Em
So lets cut down the red tape and gather up the pieces of our youth

C F
Cause there's nothing in this world we can't fix with some scissors and glue
