Sleeping At Last - Nine

Tom: Bb

```
                        Bb
Who am I
      F                       Gm
To say what any of this means?
 D#                 Dm
I have been sleepwalking
      F
Since I was fourteen

     A#                F
Now as I write my song
     Gm
I retrace my steps
     D#            Dm
Honestly, it's easier
             F
To let myself forget

     A#.                    F
Still, I check my vital signs
          Gm
Choked up, I realize
     D#                  Dm
I've been less than half myself
     Cm               F
For more than half my life

     Cm
Wake up
               A#
Fall in love again
     Gm            F
Wage war on gravity
                                   Gm
There's so much Worth fighting for
          Eb
You'll see
           Gm   F   Eb
Another domino falls

Either way
```

[Solo] Bb F Gm Eb Cm Dm Eb F

```
     A#                F
It looks like empathy
     Gm            Eb
To understand all sides
         Cm                    Dm
But I'm just trying to find myself through
              F
Someone else's eyes

     A#                F
```

```
So show me what to do
            Gm                  Eb
To restart this heart of mine
        Cm                 Dm
How do I forgive myself
                    F
For losing so much time?

          Cm
Wake up
                    Bb
Roll up your sleeves

          Gm                        F
There's a chain reaction In your heart
                   Gm
Muscle memory
          Eb
Remembering who you are

          Cm
Stand up
         A#                      Eb
And fall in love again and again and again
     Gm              F
Wage war on gravity

                        Bb
There's so much worth fighting for
              Gm
You'll see
          Gm   F   Eb
Another domino falls
                  Gm   F   Eb
And another domino falls

        A#           F
A little at a time
     Gm           Eb
I feel more alive
     Cm                      Dm
I let the scale tip and feel all of it
          D#                F
It's uncomfortable but right

         Bb              F
We were born to try
         Gm               Eb
To see each other through.

          Cm                      Dm
To know and love ourselves and others well
                  D#                F
Is the most difficult and meaningful
Work we'll ever do
```

[Solo] Bb F Gm Eb

Acordes