

Sleeping With Sirens - All My Heart (acoustic)

Tom: F
Intro: C Am

Verse 1:

^C There's so many things that I could say ^{Am}

But I'm sure it would come out all wrong

^C You got something that I can't explain, ^{Am}

Still try and try and let you know

Verse 2:

^C That first summer we spent's one we'll never forget,

Looking for any kind of reason to escape all the mess that

^C We thought was what made us

Ain't it funny now? We can see ^{Am}

We're who we're meant to be

tabreirão

^C You still have all of my

^{Am} You still have all of my

^{Dm} ^F You still have all my heart

refrão

Instrumental: C Am

Verse 3:

^C There's too many times I have to say ^{Am}

I could have been better and stronger for you and me

^C You always make me feel okay ^{Am}

Verse 4:

^C Those late summers we spent, stay up talking all night ^{Am}

I'd ask, "You think we'd ever make it?"

You'd say, "I'm sure if it's right"

Ain't it ^C funny to think just how stupid I used to be ^{Am}

Hope you always believe

tabreirão

^C You still have all of my

^{Am} You still have all of my

^{Dm} ^F You still have all my heart (2x)

refrão

Bridge:

^{Gm} Let them talk and talk and talk

^{Bb} Let them say what they want

^{Dm} We will laugh at the thought

^F They don't know what we've got

^{Gm} Every year that goes by, a year older we are ^{Bb}

You'll still be beautiful then ^{Dm}

^F Bless your beautiful heart

^{Gm} They'll talk and talk and talk

^{Bb} How crazy is it?

^{Dm} Someone could waste their whole life, helplessly, ^F

Just patiently waiting for a love like you and me

tabreirão

^C You still have all of my

^{Am} You still have all of my

^{Dm} ^F You still have all my heart (2x)
