 Release: Vieuphoria
 Author: Aksel Lindstad

Intro: . You can play the intro like this, or a way that sounds best for you, listen to the song or see the video, then it is much more easier.

full hand
 near 9th fret

1

I play it like this, it sounds wonderful, but you should see the video, the ones with the under them are kind of fast ghost notes that are strung upwards, you will understand when you see the video. (Billy)

Continues like this for vocals:

( repeat from here until you come to chords)

always ends this way:

(text:"It doesn't matter what you be live in)

Continue the figures over, the rest of the lyrics you can look up at or someplace similar.

Acordes

Strum the chords as you hear them in the song

C G
 So I am told
 D A C G
 Who wants Honey
 D A C G
 As long as there is some money
 D A C G
 Who wants that Honey

Continue to next verse from the repeating section.

After the second chorus: " who wants honey"
 Comes the
 "Let me out" riff. (You should also hear the song to time the right strumming pattern.

E D A C G
 Let, Let me out
 E D A C G
 Let, Let me out
 E D A C G
 Let, Let me out
 E D A C G
 Let, Let me out

After that there is a solo, which is hard, I only do something similar, see the video, and you will see that there are a kind of pattern like this:

Then do the same pull-off beginning, and end with sliding down and up with the same octave-pattern.
 And end with:

Back to chord progression and chorus.
 End with this two times:

and last finish: (wrong strumming pattern, but right places to hold, Listen to the song;)
