

The Smashing Pumpkins - Domsday Clock

Tom: E

Tabbed by: lmcoon
Email:

Tuning: Drop C

This song is of the new album Zeitgeist and off of the new Transformers movie.

These are the riffs in playing order:

also, on most of the riffs even though i only tabbed the low C, bar the notes...and just with the tempo. I didn't put exactly how many times to play every note, i just tried give you the idea.

same as intro with little variation

Repeat the above once, without the riff that has the slides in it and without the riff above this sentence. After that then play the rest below.

Then the bass and drums play while it sounds like the guitar is sliding the hand up and the neck, muting the strings, and using wha. Then...

low C play this until the end, and end on the first fret
