

The Smashing Pumpkins - Spaced

Tom: C

this is probably the easiest sp song... and the lyrics (as far as i can tell) are

Spaced

dad dad dad dead dead dead dead dead was i ever alive? fucking makes you alive in one minute solstice i am solstice filled with mercury filled with mercury liquid fucked
 see right through your heart
 fuck your heart i am mercury liquid pure hot, alive, dead, mucked fish eyes, doors i was born alive i'll fucking kill you i'll beat your soft baby head with my own hand careful with that baby don't ever say the h word around him ashamed i am ashamed of my name, say it i hate the sound of your shit because it means no good it means cheap, liar, smart ass piece of shit change it to raygun you fuck billy the loon

 i am mars
 billy addly addly addly... your name causes shit while i may be no expert on this reality there is no god but shame
 god is hurt, god is cold try that once, god is dead there is not another one battle cold heart radio feedback
 the pain reoccurring messages of badness reoccurring living bad dreams at the vortex of lost souls wailing lost souls of shame we are in one hole like a cup of mercury phosphate brrr shuddering around taste my shit you wench lifting wailing lost souls who stand a chance hot, my eyes darkly gaze and wonder- do not enter why why why? i was born whole fractured divided shattered into a billion fragments a million piece puzzle a million piece jigsaw puzzle with no this, and no that....
