

Sofia Frozza - House Burn

tom:

Intro: C Em Am

I want to meet you

Maybe kiss you

I want to love you

Maybe arrest you

I want to go home with you

But the house is burning too

Please don't go outside

I can't escape tell me why

Don't lie I'll see it in your eyes

Sometimes i cry alone

Hoping the rain will come

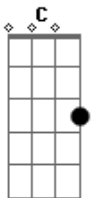

I look at the stars and I think they are like you

So come, run with me

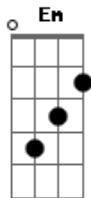

Let's forget all the sins

( C Em Am )

Once you told me grow up
And I said in your arms don't go
It's so complicated to see you alone
It hurts a lot, it hurts a lot

I want to go home with you
But the house is burning too
Please don't go outside
I can't escape tell me why
Don't lie I'll see it in your eyes

Sometimes i cry alone
Hoping the rain will come
I look at the stars and I think they are like you
So come, run with me
Let's forget all the sins

Please
Please, I love you I promise
