

S.O.J.A. (Soldiers of Jah Army) - Losing My Mind

Tom: C

There's no pictures on the wall
 There's no rise and there's
 No fall, and in the morning,
 I'm all right, alone without you.
 There's no phones and there's no calls
 There's no talking to you at all
 And i don't care,
 Late at night when it's not you

 But when i look out in the rain
 I think about the past
 I want it again
 I think about the way you feel
 Inside, i start losing my mind
 I'm losing my mind

 There's not formulates plans
 There's no way and there's no chance
 It's been too long-
 And it's all back behind me
 There's no going down that road
 And i know right where it goes

If i keep walking away,
 Nothing reminds me

 But when i look out in the rain
 I think about the past
 I want it again
 I think about the way you feel
 Inside, i start losing my mind
 I'm losing my mind

 There's no fights and there's no tears
 There's no need if you're not here
 And i'm not tha same anyway, anymore
 There's no need to write this song
 'cause there's no changing what's been done,
 And there's no changing what's inside
 And it looks like it's gonna storm.

 But when i look out in the rain
 I think about the past
 I want it again
 I think about the way you feel
 Inside, i start losing my mind
 I'm losing my mind
