

S.O.J.A. (Soldiers of Jah Army) - Rasta Courage

tom:
 Dm
 Bb Dm
 Try and remember now just what has been done
 C Dm
 Enslavement, displacement of every nation
 Bb Dm
 And now to one nation, everyone hold their grudge
 C Dm
 Kind of makes me wonder about which side I'm on
 Bb Dm
 I don't defend white, and I don't defend black
 C Dm
 I defend truth and rights and all of that

C Dm
 Hold my position and never fall of track

Bb Dm
 Nah give up my faith!
 Dm
 Though Babylon rage
 C
 I and I will strive until
 Dm
 The end of my days
 Bb Dm
 Rasta courage
 C Dm
 Go against society, Rasta courage
 Bb
 I never give no good vibes
 Dm
 And I never give up no truth
 C Dm

Never trade my sanity for living in Babylon crew
 Bb Dm
 Vanity will never drive this man insane
 C Dm
 This man will walk alongside Jah again
 Bb Dm
 We see all of the pressure to conform today
 And I may sometimes bend
 Dm
 But only as not to break
 Bb Dm
 'Cause a life of iniquity for laziness' sake
 C Dm
 Is a deal with the devil Rasta just can't make

[Refrão]

Bb Dm
 Looking back now upon all of the evidence
 C Dm
 Four hundred years and what those years have
 Bb
 Really done, we talk of peace but at the
 Dm C
 First sign of war. Bredren and bredren and
 Dm Bb
 Sistren ain't sistren no more. Without forgiveness
 Dm C
 How will any war cease, while the heathen rage
 Dm Bb
 Rastaman sitting at ease. No one will move a
 Dm
 Muscle for some moral justice
 C Dm
 And with no justice ther will be no peace
