LYRICS:

Dana, my darling, I'm writing to you
 Cause your father passed away, it was a beautiful day
 And I don't want to bother you anymore,
 I used to hope you'd come back
 But not anymore Dana.
 My eyes might have betrayed me, but I have seen
 Your picture on the cover of a filthy magazine
 And I think my heart just cannot handle that Dana, my darling, would be so bad.

Dana, my darling, I'm writing to you.
 'Cause Your mother passed away it was a rainy day
 And I didn't mean to bother you anymore
 Your mother wished: Come visit your fathers grave, Dana
 Your father disowned you because you have sinned
 But he did forgive you in condition he was in
 And I - you won't do those things anymore
 Dana My darling I'm waiting for

Dana O'Hara oh, Dana my dear,
 How I wish that Dana was here
 Little Dana O'Hara decided one day
 To travel away, far away

No, you cannot surprise me anymore
 I have seen it all before
 But it seems I cannot let you go
 Anyhow, Dana, Dana, Dana, Dana

And I think that I told you,
 I'd wait for you forever
 Now I know someone else's holding you,
 So, for the first time in my life - I must lie
 Lie's a sin, mess that I aim in,
 Love is not the thing I feel now
 I promise you: I won't write again
 'til the sun sets behind your grave

Dana, oh, Dana I'm writing to you,
 I heard you passed away it was a beautiful day
 I'm old and I feel time will come for me,
 My diary's pages are full of thee

Dana O'Hara oh, Dana my dear,
 How I wish that Dana was here
 Little Dana O'Hara decided one day
 To travel away, far away

Little O'Hara oh, Dana my dear,
