

Sophia Maldotti - The Mess You Made

Tom: A

Intro: Am F Dm G

You thought your math equations made you so clever
 You thought you were so awesome writing on that board
 You may seem kinda cool, but I ain't no beggar
 Your students don't like u, you're just Ignored

Hey, you're not the best, you're just a loser
 I was there for you, but then you chose her
 The only truth was that I was in fear
 It was hard but now I see it clear

You don't know the mess you made when you looked at me that way
 And your lies? Should I mention? shouldn't give you the attention

You don't know the mess you made when you talked to me that way

I said I wanted you to stay but you made me feel like shit
 Ohh! You made me feel, you made me feel, you made me feel like shit

(Am F Dm G)

You've got the award for being the best teacher but I have never cared about that

Stuff
 I admit that I was just a senior maybe that's why I was not enough

Time heals and makes you forget
 And now I wonder how you got inside my head

My pain used to ricochet
 But now I'm free and you're lost, I bet
