

Soundgarden - Cold Bitch

Track 2, on Spoonman single, being in length 5:22, hereby tabbed by Rigel Freden

This is a really cool song. I would advise picking this single up purely for the song if it is available in any way. (e-mail me and I'll try to come up with an mp3 for it). Better yet, get it from Napster!

Dropped D tuning.

b is anything between 1/4 and 1/2 bend, v is vibrato Fades in with open (g?) string feedback and Chris Cornell screaming.

notations in par are optional or "maybes" Please note also that this is really the guitar tab, so the 1/4 bends probably aren't accurate.

Funky time to start with. (~4/4 beat but difficult to count in 4/4). If you can time it, submit the correction.

Bass-guitar is the same except for solo

Verse riff

feedback until drums dictate otherwise, then play verse riff 4 times play verse variation twice play chorus 4 times

play verse riff thrice

play verse variation once

play bridge once

play pre-solo 4 times

play solo while bass does its thing

(there is actually a guitar doing the bass's thing during this part too but don't worry about that because this is the only point where there are two guitars playing at once).

play chorus 4 times

play bridge once
