

Spine Shiver - The Council

tom:

Intro: A A

I've reborn at the age of 25
A
When I saw my kind in the path

That should be only mine
C D
Now I keep tellin' my children A
Oh that was pretty damn good time

And It was
C D
But every time I try to realise
There's a thin line between the lies A

And the truth
That old time that we ruled
A
I guess we were being rude
C D
They built a Council to judge our acts A

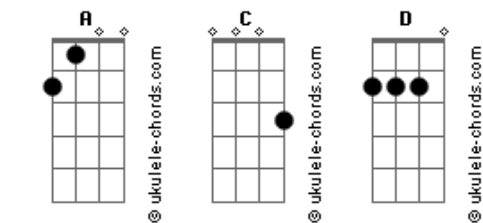

And to stop us doing our rides and tracks
Yeah, they did

Than I said
C D
No! No man can kill Rock'n'roll

That little city couldn't hold for a night
They thought I was just running out
But not without a fight

[Refrão]

C D A

Acordes

All instead of being good, I've gone bad
C D A
All instead of gone for good, I am back

That little city couldn't hold for a night
They thought I was just running out

But not without a fight
They tried to shush my loudness

And guess They could
But baby, that's the reason

I came back from Hollywood

[Refrão]

C D A
All instead of gone for good, I am back
C D A
All instead of being good, I've gone bad
C D A
All instead of gone for good, I am back (yeah, I am)
C D A
All instead of being good, I've gone bad
[Ponte]

[Riff 4x]

[Refrão]

C D A
All instead of gone for good, I am back
(yeah I am, try to fight It!)

C D A
All instead of being good, I've gone bad
C D A
All instead of gone for good, I am back

(You try to figure It out, you try to figure It out

Bit i'm going my way)

C D A
All instead of being good, I've gone bad

[Final] A
