                              tom:
                Cm

            Cm
First you gotta know

How to play the victim
Cm
Hate to tell you so

But you repeat the symptoms
        Ab
Like an aftershock
                    Ab
And I only want to make it stop

But you make it

Cm
Stronger as it grows

Revel in the friction
Cm
Stop before you blow

Or damage our division
       Ab
No I'm not too shocked
                    Ab
But I only want to make it stop
                     C        Ab
Got me shaking at the sight, oh
                    Eb     Bb
Got me quaking in my mind oh
                    C              Ab
You?re tripping over every fault of mine
                    Eb          Bb
You?re breaking open every single time
                    C        Ab
It's never black and white, no
                    Eb       Bb
Going seismic out of spite, oh
                C                  Ab
I never know if it?s your fault or mine
                    Eb          Bb
You?re breaking open every single time
          Cm
Faultline

Cm
Falling off the charts

Burning all your bridges
Cm
You don't wear a scar

While I'm the one in stitches
      Ab
And I don't know why
                    Ab
You point the finger every time

                     C        Ab
Got me shaking at the sight, oh
                    Eb     Bb
Got me quaking in my mind oh
                    C              Ab
You?re tripping over every fault of mine
                    Eb          Bb
You?re breaking open every single time
                    C        Ab
It's never black and white, no
                    Eb       Bb
I never know if it?s your fault or mine
                    Eb          Bb

Faultline

                    Cm
When it?s gotta end
                 Eb
Whatcha gonna say?
                    Fm
You been seeing red
                          Eb
And there?s no one left to blame
                    Cm
When it?s gotta end
