E A E
 You caught me in the right place at the right time
 So I'll just dive right in
 Say you've got a blank space in your right mind
 Well here's my second wind
 Oh, your idea of me blown away, away
 Something in the past tense didn't make sense for this to follow through What did you expect to happen? Were you mad then
 With nothing left to do?
 Oh, you're making me sick. What is this?
 Had we been drawn to close before?
 Because I dropped my forgiveness, it's lying face down (on the floor)
 I've got more secrets than you'll ever know
 Another year and you won't let it go
 Too many times I told myself to hold on
 But it's too late for me, now I'm as good as gone
 Funny how we go way back and we said that
 We wouldn't let this come between
 Everything and is it true that I could look past
 Memories and stay obscene?
 Oh, your idea of me blown away, away
 Something's telling me I never could have ruined everything you want in life
 Because you never put in effort, and the truth is you were never doing it right
 Oh, you're making me sick. What is this?
 Am I the one you can't ignore?

Because I dropped my forgiveness, it's lying face down (on the floor)
 I've got more secrets than you'll ever know
 Another year and you won't let it go
 Too many times I told myself to hold on
 But it's too late for me, now I'm as good as gone
 (A E)
 It turns out I don't go down that easily
 You'll never really know what this means to me
 And no, it wasn't ever too much to hold
 But you stole your own self control
 It turns out I don't go down that easily
 You'll never really know what this means to me
 And no, it wasn't ever too much to hold so just know
 It turns out I don't go down that easily
 You'll never really know what this means to me
 And no, it wasn't ever too much to hold
 But you stole your own self control
 It turns out I don't go down that easily
 You'll never really know what this means to me
 And no, it wasn't ever too much to hold so just know
 Refrão:
 I've got more secrets than you'll ever know
 Another year and you won't let it go
 Too many times I told myself to hold on
 But it's too late for me, now I'm as good as gone
 Not everybody wants an enemy
 Call me the culprit and that's all you'll see
 You were responsible for finding a way to catch on
 But it's too late for me, now I'm as good as gone
