Am C Dm
He'd trade his guns for love
F Am
But he's caught in the crossfire
C Dm
And he keeps wakin' up
F Am
But it's not to the sound of birds
C Dm
The tyranny, the violent streets
F Am
Deprived of all that we're blessed with
F Dm F
And we can't get enough, no

Am C
Heaven if you sent us down
Dm F
So we could build a playground
Am C
For the sinners to play as saints
Dm F
You'd be so proud of what we've made
Am C
I hope you got some beds around
Dm F
Cause you're the only refuge now
Am C Dm
For every mother, every child, every brother
F Am C Dm
That's caught in the crossfire
F Am C Dm
That's caught in the crossfire

( F G )

Am C Dm
I'd trade my luck to know
F Am
Why he's caught in the crossfire
C Dm
And I'm here wakin' up
F Am
To the sun and the sound of birds
C Dm
Society's anxiety
F Am
Deprived of all that we're blessed with
C Dm F
We just can't get enough, no!
Am C
Heaven if you sent us down

Dm F
So we could build a playground
Am C
For the sinners to play as saints
Dm F
You'd be so proud of what we've made

I hope you got some beds around

F G Am
Can I trust what I'm given?
C F
When faith still needs a gun
G Am C F
Whose ammunition justifies the wrong?
G Am
And I can't see from the backseat
C F
So I'm asking from above
G Am Dm
Can I trust what I'm given, even when it cuts?

F G
Heaven if you sent us down
Am C
So we could build a playground

For every mother, every child, every brother
C F G Am
Who's caught in the crossfire

Who's caught on the cross
