

Stereophonics - 100 Mph

Tom: G

(intro 2x) Em C G D

(verso 1)

Em C G D
Is it heaven or hell that dawns?
Em C G D
You're either going up or you're going down
Em C G D
Do you say your prayers late at night?
Em C G D
Or do you save them for the desperate times?

Em C G D
Do you see the beauty in a rose? I doubt it
Em C G D
Do you hear the children sing aloud? No
Em C G D
Can you see the leaves change their colours out there?
Em C G D
Can you taste the water in your mouth?

(refrão)

C G
Is there any wonder?
C G
Is there any hope?
C Em
100 miles per hour
C G D C
Yet the race just still runs slow
(C) Em C G D
The race just still feels slow

(verso 2)

Em C G D
Do you believe in good will forever guide?
Em C G D
Or does your devil take you to the other side?

Em C G D
Can karma kill you in your mind?
Em C G D
Or do you clean your soul at least once a night?

Em C G D
Do you see the beauty in a rose? I doubt it
Em C G D
Do you hear the children sing aloud?

(refrão)

C G
Is there any wonder?
C G
Is there any hope?
C Em
100 miles per hour
C G D C
Yet the race just still runs slow
(C) Em C G D
The race just still feels slow

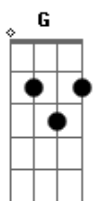

(ponte)

D C
You're running out of time, my friend
D Am C
You're running out of time again, again

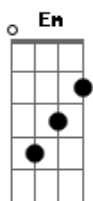

(refrão)

C G
Is there any wonder?
C G
Is there any hope?
C Em
100 miles per hour
C G D C
Yet the race just still runs slow
(C) Em C G D
The race just still feels slow
(outro) Em C G D Em
