I got mad wasn't cool
 Had a grip on myself
 But I lost it like one big fool

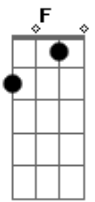

I can beg if I must
 If I ain't got your love in my life child
 It all goes bust

Baby, please, please, please
 Baby, please, baby, please
 Hey baby, please, please, please
 And baby don't, baby don't

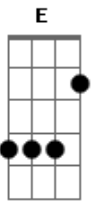

I've been down Pressure drop
 Got a lot on my head lately, baby
 My mind won't stop
 There you were, looking sly
 Hell, I felt like you wanted to lay
 With that slick, smart guy

Baby, please, please, please

Baby, please, baby, please
 Hey baby, please, please, please
 And baby don't, baby don't

Take a look at the man
 With a heart that's been through
 Take a look at the job

I keep working for you
 Just to bring you the things
 That you tell me you want
 Turn around, baby, talk

I give her time I come through
 I can deal with the problems I got
 If I still got you
 See the sun sinking low
 Hey, that just tells my poor heart sinks
 When you turn to go

Baby, please, please, please
 Baby, please, baby, please
 Hey baby, please, please, please
 And baby don't, baby don't
 Baby don't, baby don't
