

Stevie Wonder - Creepin

```
Tom: F
                                                              I sleep alone in my fantasy?
  (Original Key: Eb )
                                                              Verse 3:
Intro: F E (x2)
Verse 1:
                                                              Oh, love is so amazing,
Am7
                                                               Guess you will be stayin'.
I can hear you sighin',
                                                                      Α7
                                                               So let it be;
Sayin' you'll stay beside me;
                                                                  Dm
                                                              That you always creep...
Why must it be,
                                                              Gm7
                                                                    (F)
   Dm
                                                               Into my dreams?
That you always creep...
Gm7 (F)
                                                                      In my dreams.
Into my dreams?
Interlude:
                                                              Interlude:
E C
                                                              E C
                                                              Chorus 2:
Verse 2:
                                                                     Gbm7 Abm7 A7M
Am7
                                                              When I'm sleep at night baby,
On the beach we're sittin',
                                                              Am
                                                              I feel those moments of ecstasy.
Huggin', squeezin', kissin';
                                                              E7M Gbm7 Abm7 A7M
        A7
                                                              When you sleep at night baby,
Why must it be,
              Ab7
                                                              I wonder do I creep in-to your dreams,
   Dm
That you always creep...
      (F)
                                                              Or could it be,
Into my dreams?
                                                               Em7
                                                              I sleep alone in my fantasy?
        In my dreams.
                                                              Verse 4:
Interlude:
                                                              Oh, love is so amazing,
                                                               Guess you will be stayin'.
                                                                      Α7
                                                               So let it be;
Chorus 1:
                                                                             Ab7
                                                                  Dm
       Gbm7 Abm7 A7M
                                                              That you always creep...
When I'm sleep at night baby,
                                                              Gm7
                                                                    (F)
                                                               Into my dreams?
I feel those moments of ecstasy.
                                                              F E
E7M Gbm7 Abm7 A7M
                                                                       In my dreams,
When you sleep at night baby,
                                                                       In my dreams,
I wonder do I creep in-to your dreams,
                                                                      In my dreams.
  Bm7
Or could it be,
                                                              (Repeat to Fade)
```

Acordes

