

Sticky Fingers - One By One

Tom: D

Verso 1:

You wouldn't believe me
 The stories I tell you
 We reached for the stars
 But it fell downwards
 It ruined my hairdo
 But nobody said so
 'Cause they got all cleaned up
 But I'm still around

Refrão:

Is anybody out there
 Or am I all alone?
 Maybe I'm just dumb
 But why should I care?
 There ain't no ending to this world
 Just your own existence
 I'm just picking up the pieces
 One by one
 One by one

Verso 2:

I say I'm sorry
 I know it's not fair
 Look out my window to nowhere
 We've been out for days and days on end

With no discussion
 We thought about nothing
 I'm the fisherman's friend

Pré-Refrão:

Nothing ever gets me down a soul to tear
 Nothing's gonna kill us cause we're already dead
 Nothing ever gets me down a soul to tear
 Nothing's gonna kill us cause we're already dead
 Already dead

Refrão:

Is anybody out there
 Or am I all alone?
 Maybe I'm just dumb
 But why should I care?
 There ain't no ending to this world
 Just your own existence
 I'm just picking up the pieces
 One by one
 One by one
 One by one
 One by one
 I'm just picking up the pieces
 One by one
 I'm just picking up the pieces
 One by one
