

Stu Nunnery - Lady It's Time To Go

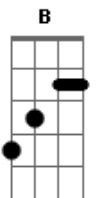

tom:
 I don't know what to do but I have a few ideas
 I'd like to play with
 I finally have the option to destroy or salvage
 Something I have gained
 And I'm no longer tempted
 Feel exempted from the pressures of a lifetime
 So, I'll have my fantasies and let them take me
 Where they'd like to go
 I am content to have my bad days
 No longer need to hide the pain

Lady it's time to go
 I always knew the secret but I'd keep it to myself
 Until it killed us
 When I was alone with you I'd trouble finding Words enough to say
 You never really changed it, the arrangement wasn't
 What I had in mind
 And even though I loved you I had friends and time
 I needed even more
 Life is ahead for you and me
 We have to be alone to see
 Lady it's time to go
