

Sufjan Stevens - Should Have Known Better

Tom: C

Am D
I should have known better

C
To see what I could see

F
My black shroud

G
Holding down my feelings

F
A pillar for my enemies

Am D
I should have wrote a letter

C
And grieve what I happen to grieve

F
My black shroud

G
I never trust my feelings

F
I waited for the remedy

Dm F G
When I was three, three maybe four

(Am - G - C) C
She left us at that video store

G F (Am - G - C) C
Be my rest, be my fantasy

G F
Be my rest, be my fantasy

Am D
I'm light as a feather

C
I'm bright as the Oregon breeze

F
My black shroud

G
Frightened by my feelings

F
I only want to be a relief

Am D
No, I'm not a go-getter

C
The demon had a spell on me

F
My black shroud

G
Captain of my feelings

F
The only thing I want to believe

Dm F G
When I was three, and free to explore

F (Am - G - C) C
I saw her face on the back of the door

G F (Am - G - C) C
Be my rest, be my fantasy

G F
Be my rest, be my fantasy

C F
I should have known better

G
Nothing can be changed

C
The past is still the past

G F
The bridge to nowhere

F G
I should've wrote a letter

C G
Explaining what I feel, that empty feeling

C F
Don't back down,

G
concentrate on seeing

C
The breakers in the bar

G F
the neighbor's greeting

F G
My brother had a daughter

C G
The beauty that she brings, illumination

C F
Don't back down,

G
there is nothing left

C
The breakers in the bar,

G F
no reason to live

F G
I'm a fool in the fetter

C G
Rose of Aaron's beard, where you can reach me

C F
Don't back down

G
nothing can be changed

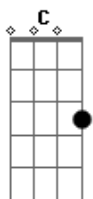

C
Cantilever bridge,

G F
the drunken sailor

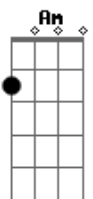

F G
My brother had a daughter

C G F G
C (one)
The beauty that she brings, illumination, illumination
