

Surfaces - Golden Hour

tom:

Intro: Bm D A Gbm

If golden hour was a flower, it'd look like you
 Solar powered, sweet and sour and dressed in blue
 If golden hour was a flower, it'd look like you
 Solar powered, sweet and sour and dressed in blue

You're burning up inside, looking for peace of mind
 A new need, turns a new leaf, yeah
 A desert of desire, a drop could go for miles
 So stand free with the same ease and
 The less you see the more you know
 The less you wait the more you grow
 A desert of desire, a drop could go for miles
 So stand free with the same ease

(Bm D A Gbm)

All I ever wanted was to be your mound
 Rooted in our love but free enough from ground
 Sometimes rain is more than just a cloud around
 Sometimes lost means more than hoping to be found

You're burning up inside, looking for peace of mind
 A new need, turns a new leaf, yeah
 A desert of desire, a drop could go for miles
 So stand free with the same ease and
 The less you see the more you know
 The less you wait the more you grow
 A desert of desire, a drop could go for miles
 So stand free with the same ease

[Final] Bm D A Gbm
