

Surya - The Kids Are Lost

tom:

The kids are lost
 Let them come out
 The kids are lost
 Let them come out
 When they are sad
 They use to talk out loud
 When they are angry
 They don't speak at all
 When they go away
 And see the sun outside
 They use to tell themselves
 A lie, a lie
 A lie that
 It will seems like it's true
 One day they'll realize
 That God stills here
 Listening to them
 Looking for them
 And then they'll ask
 Oh God, oh God
 How can I change my life?
 Oh God, oh God
 How can I change my mind?

How can I change my mind?

 Oh God, oh God
 How can I change my mind?
