

Switchfoot - Company Car

Tom: E

Verse:

E A B A E
 Mike was right when he said i put up a fight to be somone a fight to be me
 E A B A E
 but now see now, im down under the pavment of capotil hills and lower case people
 Dbm A Gb B G#(m?)
 Dbm B as time rolls by my dreams have become That which is attainable Not what I'm looking for!

Chorus:

E B Dbm E|---3-4-5s0---|
 I've got the company car
 E Ab A C
 I'm the one swinging at two under par
 E B Dbm
 Yeah, I've become one with the ones
 A that I've never believed in E Gbm A B
 But I've got the company car

2nd verse: same/igual

Hey, Im the king of thins I've always dispised
 Im the gingerbread man who got eaten alive
 I'm half baked, I'm fake!
 but see I got hotels on Park Place and Boardwalk
 And two hundred bucks
 I pass go, but oh! Life's taken control
 Have I won monoploy to forfeit my soul?

Bridge:

All the kings horses
 at the foot of the wall

They're taking pictures of The man who's lost all of his

A masks of pretension. He's got two faces left His is the Gb A one that he hides On the left behind that smile..

Last verse/último estrofe - same/igual

Hiding tears and fear, that burns like an engine, It drives him away
 >From the ones that he loves Mike was right: " Hey Mike! were one in the same; we're the faceless combatants in the loneliest game" Ah but say,
 I'll wave as I'm driving by, With that smirk in my eye, yelling "Hey!
 I'm somthing man, check me out!"
