

Switchfoot - Daisy Intro

Tom: E

Ok I had been using the other tab for some time but i noticed that some things didnt right to me, so im making my own tab. this is my first tab, sorry if its a little confusing.

Remember this is Drop-d flat!!

Intro:

verse 1

Of power and surrender Giving us today When she gives herself away

Rain, another rainy day Comes up from the ocean Give herself away

She comes down easy On rich and dead the same When she gives herself away

Chorus

Let it go, Daisy let it go Open up your fists

This fallen world Doesn't hold your interest

Doesn't hold your soul Daisy let it go

For Verse 2 just repeat verse 1 chords

Pain, give yourself a name
Call yourself contrition,
Avarice or blame
Giving isn't easy
And neither is the rain
When she gives herself away

Daisy, why another day
Why another sunrise
Who will take the blame
For our redemptive motion
And every rainy day
When he gives himself away

Chorus

Let it go, Daisy let it go Open up your fists

This fallen world Doesn't hold your interest

Doesn't hold your soul Daisy let it go

Let it go...

Daisy let it go

Let it go

Let it go

Let it go

Let it go

Let it go
