

Take That - Said It All

Tom: D
Intro: Bm D7 D G7

When the tears fall away
And there's no conversation
There's nothing left to break
That's not already broken
You're staring into space
And every inch of silence
Been standing here for days, and days

Coro:
Said it all
Nothing to say at all
Nothing to say that matters
Haven't we heard enough?

Said it all
Nothing to say at all
Nothing to say that matters
Doesn't matter any more

In the sudden light of day

The weight of expectation
Hurt begins to fade
As you find a new direction
Been talking here for days, and days, and days

(Coro)
D A Bm G

All of the miles of words we've spoken
All of the lines that got away (2x)
Didn't we take the time to say them all?

Coro:
Said it all
Nothing to say at all
Nothing to say that matters
Haven't we heard enough?

Said it all
Nothing to say at all
Nothing to say that matters
Haven't we said it all?
