

Tally Hall - Time Machine

tom:
Am
[Primeira Parte]

A
Look, oh, look at what you've done now to me
D
Dead tired and ornery
A Dbm
I'm leaving today, today
E Gbm
Thinking of the way I used to spend the time
G D
I can see that I have overpaid
E Gbm
Past is passed and rather than regret the old
G E
I can live it back the other way

[Segunda Parte]

Just look, oh, look at what you've done now to me
D
Free-floating temporally
A Dbm
I'm leaving today, today
E Gbm
I avoid the messiness of misery
G D
Playing in dimension number four
E Gbm
I can get away to any time I like
G E
Space-time's any time and many more

[Refrão]

Am E F
Ooh, live the dream in a time machine
C C
You've been waiting forever
Am F C
But you can make ever wait for you
Dm
Do what you wanna do
Am E F
Ooh, live the dream in a time machine
C C Am
You've been waiting forever
Em Dm7
You'll have time enough to spend some time alone

[Solo]

A D A Dbm
(Same as the verse)

[Terceira Parte]

A
Wait -- I await for all e ternity
D

With standing modernity

A Dbm
Is where we must stay, today
E Gbm
Now I know the nature of no urgency
G D
Now I know why now is never gone
E Gbm
Fleeting in this mode of making memories
G E
Keeping up this pace of keeping on

[Refrão]

Am E F
Ooh, live the dream in a time machine
C C
You've been waiting forever
Am F C
But you can make ever wait for you
