

Tally Hall - Time Machine

tom:
[Primeira Parte]

A
Look, oh, look at what you've done now to me

D
Dead tired and ornery

A Dbm
I'm leaving today, today

E Gbm
Thinking of the way I used to spend the time

G D
I can see that I have overpaid

E Gbm
Past is passed and rather than regret the old

G E
I can live it back the other way

[Segunda Parte]

Just look, oh, look at what you've done now to me

D
Free-floating temporally

A Dbm
I'm leaving today, today

E Gbm
I avoid the messiness of misery

G D
Playing in dimension number four

E Gbm
I can get away to any time I like

G E
Space-time's any time and many more

[Refrão]

Am E F
Ooh, live the dream in a time machine

C C
You've been waiting forever

Am F C
But you can make ever wait for you

Dm
Do what you wanna do

E F
Ooh, live the dream in a time machine

C C Am
You've been waiting forever

Em Dm
You'll have time enough to spend some time alone

[Solo]

A D A Dbm
(Same as the verse)

[Terceira Parte]

A
Wait -- I await for all e ternity

D

With standing modernity

A Dbm
Is where we must stay, today

E Gbm
Now I know the nature of no urgency

G D
Now I know why now is never gone

E Gbm
Fleeting in this mode of making memories

G E
Keeping up this pace of keeping on

[Refrão]

Am E F
Ooh, live the dream in a time machine

C C
You've been waiting forever
