

Tame Impala - Sun's Coming Up

Tom: Bb

G Gbm F Gbm
 All those things I ever thought would never end,
 C Am
 To think they now are memories
 C D7M
 Since we're in the band
 G Gbm F Gbm
 Watch the airplanes swaying, coming in to land
 C Am C D7M
 Then my world is hanging in someone else's hands
 G Gbm F Gbm
 And if I have done something, you have to let me go
 C Am C D7M
 Think of me as someone, someone that you know
 G Gbm F Gbm
 But if I don't hear something, pretty soon from now, ill
 C Am C C7
 disconnect completely, see how that works out

(C Am)
 (C C7)

Gm Gm Gm F Gm

I wasn't daring, not much a chancer
 Gm Gm Cm F Gm
 Oh my darling, why won't you answer?
 Gm Gm Gm F Gm
 Se-ven AM, midnight in Dover
 Gm Gm Cm F Gm
 Sun's comin up now, I guess it's over.
 Gm Gm Gm F
 Gm
 Playing his guitar while he's dying of cancer
 Gm Gm Cm F Gm
 Oh my father, why won't you answer?
 Gm Gm Gm F Gm
 Se-ven AM, midnight in Dover
 Gm Gm Cm F Gm
 Sun's comin up now, I guess it's over.

The guitar noise that follows, uses mainly these chords:

B Gbm
 And Cm Bbm G7M

Since the piano part is played in 3/4 tempo, the bottom note of the chord is often played as the bass.

Look at the intro part - and listen to the song - to get the rhythm right.
