

Tatila Krau - I'm Not Ok

tom:

I lied

I'm not ok

I can't stop thinking 'bout yesterday

You kissed me

Like there was so much between you and me

And I

Want it again, want it again

If the stars collided

Would you be my date?

Just for today

You know it, boy

You're kinda my soulmate

But it's ok

I understand

You cannot be with me

I cannot be with you

It has to be like this

Though I want it or not

It's not up to me

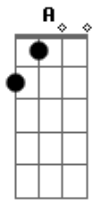

It's not up to you

Even though I love you

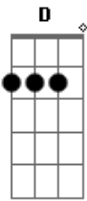

I love you

I love you
